Abraham Lincoln never said "Hello, Central," never dodged an automobile, never held a strap in a trolley car, never pushed a button for a light, never heard a phonograph and never posed for a motion picture, and yet Abraham Lincoln died only forty-eight years ago.

Some one asks the question "does it pay to advertise?" Ten sacks of mail order house catalogues were received at the Yale postoffice last Friday evening.

Express and mail carrier Menerey had a whole day between the station and the local postoffice. Evidently there are those who believe in advertising.

Fire of unknown origin was discovered this morning at 4:30 in the City Opera House block, Port Huron, and before it was finally gotten under control a loss estimated at nearly a quarter of a million dollars was piled up.

Following are the principal losses:—City Opera House; Patterson's jewelry store; MacTaggart's, (booksellers and stationers); the D. U. R. waiting room; Wm. Palmer's barber shop, and the building formerly occupied the Port Huron Savings Bank. There were a number of people rooming in the building burned and many had narrow escapes, but there were no accidents.

Beg your pardon, Miss! I think your skirt is ripped; I see a slit both fore and aft, and thought you should be tipped; that all the men are laughing as you pass along the street, and saying things that aren't so nice for a lady's ear to greet. Your stockings look so dainty, and your ankles are so trim. It seems too bad to show them to every eye or him. And your dress is so close fitting, so clinging to your form, you can't have on much more, my dear, than the day when you were born. Of course you think you're pretty, but that's a sad mistake; you're just a silly little fool that makes some poor heart ache. You haven't got the right idea, your view of life is bad; you ought to be laid across his knee, and spanked by your old dad.

OBITUARY.

He still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

Samuel Levagood, aged 80 years, died on Monday, Feb. 9, 1914, at the home of his daughter Mrs. Roadman, at Onamia, Minn. Cause of death was pneumonia. The remains arrived in Yale Wednesday evening and were taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Heinmiller in Greenwood township and the funeral will be held this afternoon at one o'clock from the Evangelical church, east of Yale. Services will be conducted by Eld. L. Clark, assisted by Rev. Brown of that church, and interment will be made in the Lett cemetery beside his wife who died several years ago.

Mr. Levagood was at one time a resident of Greenwood township, and will be well remembered by the older inhabitants. He leaves to mourn the death of a kind and loving father, three children, two daughters, Mrs. Roadman, of Onamia, Minn., and Mrs. Wm. Heinmiller, of Greenwood, and one son Jacob, who is living in the west, but his exact residence is not known.

Dr. and Mrs. Roadman accompanied the body here and attended the funeral. The Expositor sympathizes with the family in their bereavement.

—O—
Mrs. Mary Blakeley died on Tuesday, Feb. 10, 1914, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ashton Smith, aged 83 years, 2 months and 25 days.

Miss Mary Vandenberg was born in the town of Northumberland, Saratoga county, N. Y., Nov. 16, 1831. When about two years of age her parents moved to Norwich, Oxford county, Ont., again moving to Fort Gratiot, Michigan, when 14 years old. March 25th, 1847 she was united in marriage to David F. Stevens. Sept. 6, 1848 they moved onto a farm one mile north and one mile west of Yale, at which time Brockway township was a dense wilderness.

Five daughters and five sons were born to them, David, deceased; Omar, Alpena; Frank, deceased; Orlando, North Branch; Hiram, Delphie, Montana; Mary, deceased; Deesta, Mrs. Ashton Smith, Yale; Celia, Mrs. Robt. Pearson, Niles, Ont.; Ardelia, Mrs. N. J. Spenceberg, Detroit; Racenia M. Mrs. J. W. Bodyfield, Hot Springs, Ark. One sister, Mrs. M. J. Chamberlain, survives her.

Her husband died in 1869 and in 1878 she was again married, this time to Samuel N. Blakeley, he dying March 29, 1895.

When Mr. and Mrs. Stevens located on Mill Creek this territory was a dense wilderness and they suffered all the privations of pioneer life, being compelled to go to Port Huron to get food and supplies. At the same time John D. Jones and Robert Ricks took up land on opposite corners.

Mrs. Blakeley was a member of Elder Paton's church for the past 40 years and lived a consistent christian life. She was beloved by all and enjoyed the esteem and respect of a host of friends and neighbors.

The funeral will be held tomorrow (Friday) from the home of her daughter, Elder J. H. Paton, preaching the sermon. Interment in the McFadden cemetery.

A Pioneer Passes Away

George E. Thomas, aged 78 years, a pioneer of Lynn and Kenoskee townships died at the Paisley Hotel in Yale on Friday, Feb. 6th, 1914, after a lingering illness of about two years from heart trouble.

Deceased was born in Wales, Europe and when only a boy came to this country and settled in Canada where his father took up 1,000 acres of land. Later the family moved to Michigan and settled in Lynn township, this country.

January 1st, 1863, he married Miss Mary Jane Woodward, soon after enlisting in the Union army, only remaining in service nine months when the civil war ended. He then returned and settled on a farm adjoining his father's in Lynn. Mrs. Thomas died six or eight weeks ago. An adopted daughter, Mrs. Mary Friar, of New Jersey is left, also a host of friends.

The funeral was held at Avoca Monday under the direction of the Masonic fraternity of Port Huron of which society he had been a member for over forty years.

Chas. W. Jackson of Crosswell, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McColl Friday and Saturday last.

John Paxton has rented the Joseph Mathews farm of 180 acres, some of it Old Brockway, for a year and moved thereon last Friday.

Mary M. Brown left Monday evening for Colorado Springs, Colo., to spend a short time with Mrs. Alex. McColl, whose husband is very low.

H. P. Ohmer was at Caseville last Thursday on a fur buying tour. He was at Prescott and other northern towns the first of this week.

A Lincoln's birthday dancing party is being given at McKinney's hall, Old Brockway, this (Thursday) evening. Music is furnished by Grazadi's orchestra.

Patrick Kissan, Chas. E. Martin and W. D. Sayles sr., jurors for this term of circuit court were excused last Thursday to report for duty again next Monday the 19th.

Mrs. J. A. Hennessy of Villa Grove, Colo., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. W. Andreae this week. She was called here by the death of another sister, Mrs. Graham of Sarnia.

Advances estimates of the profits from the parcel post for the year 1913, as given out at Washington, place the aggregate amount at $30,000,000, which is just double the estimates made by the postoffice department at the time the system was installed. If the claims of the railways for compensation for the extra weight now being carried free were adjusted, the net profits likely would shrink to about $20,000,000 which is still a handsome sum. The total income from the service for the current year is estimated at $80,000,000. It is an excellent showing.
